Opening Remarks

10:00 – 10:15 Health Break –

10:15 – 11:45 PANEL #1 – Transformation

Panel Members: Laura Cohen, Algonquin College
Steve Schnitzer – J.I.B.C.
Peter Shipley – O.P.P.
Wayne Jacobson – C.A.P.E.

In this first Session each panelists will draw upon their own past experiences to "fuse" with their Institutions current Practices on Police and Public Safety Training. We will be asking panelists to make reasonable predictive assumptions on what Police Trainers and Educators will be facing in 2025 and beyond! The panelists will prime the delegates for a strategic discussion on Police Training and Education.

11:45 – 13:00 Lunch –

13:00 – 14:00 Session #1 – Small group discussion

Following Panel #1 delegates will be assigned into smaller groups. The groups will be asked to appoint a scribe and a facilitator for their own group. There will be (3) open ended generic questions for each small on the Topic of Change and Leadership. Delegates will be asked to ponder each question and participate in a consensus building on (3) answers.

14:00 – 14:30 Health Break

14:30 – 15:45 Session #1 – Large group discussion

Small Group Leaders will report back their consensus on each of the (3) generic questions. The Conference facilitator will lead the large group through a discussion around "common Threads" in the responses.

16:00 – Dinner –

19:00 – 21:00 Networking @ Slemon Park hospitality room

Entertainment: Allen Sonier, Local Musician

Wednesday, June 14th

09:00 – 10:30 PANEL #2 – Research

Panel Members: Scott Blandford, Wilfred Laurier University
Chris Giacomantonio, Halifax Regional Police
Dr. Greg Anderson, PhD. J.I.B.C.
Dr. Hina Kalyal, University of Western Ontario

The panelists will each take 15-20 mins to share their research experience to make predictive assumptions around the "challenges" police educators will be facing in the future 2025 and beyond. Researchers may suggest based on evidence the best practices, approaches, processes and structures around public safety and training. What will partnerships look like? Integration? Technology?

10:30 – 11:00 Health Break –

11:00 – 12:00 Session #2 – Larger group discussion

The Conference facilitator will engage the delegates together with the panelists to develop key points around the future of training and educators.
